

2019 Programme

19th February

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AND DINNER

6.30 p.m. Charlton Horethorne Village Hall

Tickets: £6.00 – available from The Village Shop,
Charlton Horethorne (01963 220236)

12th March

HOW YEOVIL IS PLANTED FOR SUMMER EFFECT

Talk by Steve Fox, Principal Horticultural Officer, South Somerset District Council

Under Steve's direction, Yeovil has been awarded Gold at the South West in Bloom competition numerous times over the last few years. As well as award-winning planting displays, Steve's team is also responsible for growing thousands of plants, used in Sherborne and other towns and villages in our area.

Free plug plant available to Members at the meeting - on a first come, first served basis.

* Charlton Horethorne Village Hall – 7.15 p.m.

Non-Members' entrance fee - £2.00

3rd April

CASTLE GARDENS TALK and 25% DISCOUNT EVENING

Castle Gardens, Sherborne - 6.45 p.m.

14th May

TYNTESFIELD GARDENS AND ESTATE

Talk by Terry Stevens, a volunteer at Tyntesfield since September

2003, shortly after the National Trust had been successful in purchasing the House and Estate.

Tyntesfield was identified as one of the last great Victorian estates to have survived with virtually all of its contents intact, making it an exceptional treasury of Victorian life and culture.

Plus, annual Club plant swop.

* Charlton Horethorne Village Hall – 7.15 p.m.

Non-Members' entrance fee - £2.00

7th June

CAR SHARE GARDEN VISIT – to TYNTESFIELD !

Details from the Programme Planner nearer the date

9th July

CAR SHARE GARDEN VISIT

A visit to Forrest Lodge, Pen Selwood, BA9 8LL

A beautiful 3 acre mature garden with lovely views towards the Blackmore Vale. Part formal, with pleached hornbeam allée and rill, part water garden with lake. Wonderful roses and interesting garden sculpture.

Details from the Programme Planner nearer the date

10th August

SUMMER SHOW

Show schedules available prior to the Show from The Village Shop, Charlton Horethorne (01963 220236)

Charlton Horethorne Village Hall – 2.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m.

17th September

ALAN POWER, STOURHEAD

Talk by local horticultural star, Alan Power, Head Gardener, Stourhead

This is a joint event with Milborne Port Gardening Club, taking place at Milborne Port Village Hall

Details from the Programme Planner nearer the date

15th October

THE ROAD TO CHELSEA

Talk by Kate Savill, an award-winning landscape designer based in Bristol.

She has competed at Chelsea for the last 2 years and will tell us all about the highs and lows of that experience

* Charlton Horethorne Village Hall – 7.15 p.m.

Non-Members' entrance fee - £2.00

* Coffee, tea and biscuits are served from about 6.45 p.m. before the talk

NOTE:

Annual Membership is £7.00.

Non-Members are welcome to join us on garden visits at cost (subject to space being available) and at evening talks for the fees shown above.

All are welcome to take part in the Summer Show, whether or not they are a Member.