

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER

FROM Mr. Ronald A.H. PITMAN in the 1990's

(who lived at 658 The Knapp from the age of 7 to 17 years, 1928 - 1938)

to Robert Williams AUTHOR of "The Story of CHARLTON HORETHORNE in SOMERSET"

*"When we first came to the village Dad would go to British Legion
"Dug Out" parties in the Village Hall after which someone who couldn't get home would sleep downstairs. One man used to come from Blackford by pony and trap and when he was drunk they would lift him into the trap and give the pony a slap. Dad said the pony would take him home."*
