

VILLAGE HALL REMINISCENCES

Extracts from 'Village Voices' by Jenny Peet

'Watering the Cauliflowers' – Memories of the 1940's of John Syms

born 1926 and lived on Sherborne Road

"....The Football Club used to run a dance at the village hall once a month and we used to have the Avalon Band come from Glastonbury for £7.50. Then we used to have Mrs. Moor's accordion band, also for dancing. When people complain nowadays about music down at the hall, well, they should have heard the sound when Mrs. Moor came with her accordion band. You could hear that right at the top of Maperton Road – and they didn't have mircophones!"
