

VILLAGE HALL REMINISCENCES

Extracts from 'Village Voices' by Jenny Peet

'Wild Flowers and a Storm over Stowell' – Memories of the 1960's of Pam Viney

born 1941 and lived on Sherborne Road

“....The social life of the village was centred on the village hall. There were some wonderful social evenings held there on a very regular basis. There was a dance every week at one time, with a live band every time. It was brilliant and there was always a bit of a singsong. No alcohol was served, just tea, coffee, sandwiches and cakes made by the women of the village.”

