

Unfortunately Another Casualty of the 2020 Pandemic

CHARLTON HORETHORNE AMATEUR PANTOMIME SOCIETY

CHAPS committee recently had a social distancing meeting.

At this meeting, it is with much sadness and disappointment that the committee came to a unanimous vote - that the chances of us being able to put on a pantomime in January 2021 were very unlikely, while adhering to the government's requirements relating to Covid-19.

It is too much of a challenge for CHAPS to be able to keep everyone safe. We have reluctantly decided to postpone the production plans for January 2021. This decision was not taken lightly.

The Village Hall is booked ready for the 2021/2022 Pantomime season. So we will rest up, and keep safe, to be ready for another spectacular performance from the:

CHARLTON HORETHORNE AMATEUR PANTOMIME SOCIETY

In 2022, we will not let Covid-19 stop the tradition of our annual village pantomime - onwards and upwards, we will return.....

Please stay safe, and we will see you all for the next production.

John Mathew (Chairman)
and
THE CHAPS COMMITTEE MEMBERS