

Transcription of a Western Gazette Article

March 1935

CHARLTON HORETHORNE.
AN ENJOYABLE EVENING was spent on Friday, when the local branch of the British Legion ran a social in the Village Hall. Competitions of all kinds were provided for young and old. A sketch by three members, Messrs. F. A. Biles, C. Fisher, and A. H. Silk, entitled "April Fools," afforded great fun. Mesdames Biles, Bunch, Pitman, and Gibbs, wives of members of the Committee, acted a sketch, entitled "Matrimonial Post," which was also loudly applauded. Mr. H. Silk sang two songs. Mrs. Hannon was at the piano for the songs and dances.—The Chairman of the branch (Mr. F. C. Burnell), who presided, thanked the Committee and their wives for the work and time they must have put in to provide such good entertainment.

CHARLTON HORETHORNE

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING was spent on Friday, when the local branch of the British Legion ran a social in the Village Hall. Competitions of all kinds were provided for young and old. A sketch by three members, Messrs. F. A. Biles, C. Fisher, and A. H. Silk, entitled "April Fools", afforded great fun. Mesdames Biles, Bunch, Pitman, and Gibbs, wives of members of the Committee, acted a sketch, entitled "Matrimonial Post." Which was also loudly applauded. Mr H. Silk sang two songs. Mrs. Hannon was at the piano for the songs and dances. — The Chairman of the branch (Mr. F. C. Burnell), who presided, thanked the Committee and their wives for the work and time they must have put in to provide such good entertainment.

