

The Completed Refurbished Village Hall in 2019

with new external cladding, new roof and solar panels

Many congratulations - and our thanks - to everyone involved in the refurbishment of the Village Hall. Completely overhauled (sorry - it had to be said) this former army hut is now looking very smart and is fully open again for all regular activities and special events.